Constitution

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be the Peterson Schriever Cheyenne Mountain Spouses' Club, hereinafter referred to as the PSC.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purpose of this organization shall be to promote nonprofit, social, cultural, and community service activities. This organization shall be a private organization as that term is defined in AFI 34-223. It shall have no official status with or in the United States Air Force, and shall not be entitled to any sovereign immunities, privileges, insurance benefits, or other exemptions and advantages to which Non-Appropriated Funds Instrumentalities (NAFI) are entitled. It shall be subjected to such restrictions, laws, taxes, licenses, ordinances, etc., to the extent, which may be imposed upon it by local, state, and federal jurisdictions. No part of the PSC's net earnings may accrue to the benefit of any person having a personal or private interest in the activities of the organization. The PSC must be self-sustaining. There will be no direct financial assistance to this club from a NAFI in the form of contributions, dividends, or donations of monies or other assets.

PSC operates on a military base only with the consent of the installation commander. Operation is contingent on compliance with the requirements and conditions of all applicable Air Force regulations.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the PSC is voluntary. Those who meet the eligibility requirements as defined in the Bylaws shall constitute the membership. Membership discrimination based on race, color, sex, or national origin is prohibited. As members of the PSC, a private organization, no financial benefit can be accrued by any of its members. The membership is liable under the laws of Colorado for organizational debts in the event the organization's assets are insufficient to discharge liabilities.

ARTICLE IV – MEETINGS

There shall be a regular meeting of the PSC once a month unless otherwise directed by the Board of Directors. The President may call special meetings.

ARTICLE V – ADMINISTRATION

The executive direction of the PSC shall be vested in a Board of Directors and an Executive Council as defined in the Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI – OFFICERS

The officers of the PSC shall include Advisor(s), a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a General Treasurer, and a Charitable Treasurer. The Parliamentarian and Member-at-Large are appointed officers. Advisor(s) may attend officer meetings and all PSC events.

ARTICLE VII – AMENDMENT

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote at any regular meeting provided that announcement of the written and proposed amendment has been made to the general membership and posted for review for at least 20 days. All proposed amendments must be submitted to the Board of Directors in writing and signed by five (5) members. All amendments are subject to final review by installation commander. The bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the board of directors.

ARTICLE VIII – DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution of this organization all funds and property, real or personal, in excess of liabilities shall be given to base youth activities or other base charitable organizations in accordance with Air Force regulations. If there are not enough assets to cover all liabilities, all members can be held financially responsible.

In case of dissolution of the organization, funds in the treasury at the time will be used to satisfy any outstanding debts, liabilities, or obligations. The balance of the assets will be disposed of as determined by the membership. Dissolution of the PSC shall be by a majority vote of the membership.

ARTICLE IX – LIABILITY

Liability and property damage insurance against claims or lawsuits that may arise from commission or omission of members when acting in any capacity for or participating in the activities of the organization has been purchased. Such insurance coverage will expressly provide that neither the United States nor any non-appropriated fund instrumentality will be liable for any claims or judgments against the organization or its members. All members acknowledge that each is personally, jointly, and severally liable for the debts and liabilities incurred by this organization.

ARTICLE X – TAX EXEMPTION

The membership shall have the power to delegate to the Board of Directors the authority to make any and all changes in the Constitution and Bylaws that are necessary in order to obtain exemption from federal income tax.
